Since my first Virtual Lap Band I haven't had any cravings for sweets or soda. I use to drink three sodas a day and from my first session I haven't picked one up or even thought of a soda. ~~But~~ I found myself when I went out to eat I put something I never got or even like when I go out. I found myself eating smaller portions, and making better food choice. I was glad to see that in just my first week I lost 3 lbs. I'm also not as tired and my back just feels good. I look forward in ~~the~~ meetings my goal weight.
